PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a warrant
 To issue a summons

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number      Nature of Noncompliance

1.

Violation of standard condition number 5: You shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training or other acceptable reasons:

The offender has not been employed since November of 2005. On January 11, 2006, this officer met with the offender at which time he acknowledged not working or attempting to secure employment since November 2005.

Violation of standard condition number 6: You shall notify the probation officer ten days prior to a change of residence or employment:

Mr. Washington quit his employment and moved without notifying the probation officer. On January 11, 2006, the probation officer met with the offender and he admitted to moving from Charleston, West Virginia to Huntington, West Virginia. The offender advised the probation officer he has resided in Huntington for approximately a month.

Docket No. 3:98CR00018-003

3.

Violation of standard condition number 9: You shall not associate with any person engaged in criminal activity and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer:

On January 11, 2006, the probation officer met with the offender at which time he advised that he resides with Tashima Johnson and has done so for approximately four weeks. This officer also observed the offender with this individual on December 5, 2005. Ms. Johnson is a convicted felon, having been convicted in United States District Court for the Southern District of West Virginia for a drug offense and the offender is well aware of her status as a felon. The offender did not ask nor receive permission to associate with this individual.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

The term of supervision should be:

Revoked
 Extended for year(s), for a total term of years.

The conditions of supervision should be modified as follows:

Respectfully submitted,

by
